Furious Maypole customers forced to cancel or rearrange events following sudden closure

THE Maypole Sports & Social Club remains boarded up and gated off this week as staff, members and those with pre-booked events at the club are left to deal with the aftermath of its shock closure.

The first event to be cancelled at the Maypole was Maria Sherlock's 40th birthday party. The celebrations were booked for Saturday (July 13) - only four days after the club's sudden closure.

"I had just stepped off the plane, after going on my honeymoon, at quarter past six on Wednesday morning to find my party was no more as the club had closed. It was just absolute chaos," Mrs Sherlock, of East Park, said.

"I was stunned when I found out - I didn't know what to do. We had about 110 people invited, a DJ booked and had just lost our venue.

"Jeff Boucher [The Maypole's chairman] was fantastic, though. He gave our deposits back and he told me he had been able to transfer the party to Paringdon Sports Club"

She added: "I had my 30th at the Maypole and was looking forward to having my 40th there and it was very stressful to come back to something like that.

BIANCA CASTRO

bianca.castro@hertsexnews.co.uk

"But I really feel for the people at the Maypole who have lost their club."

Gemma Palmer, who only joined the Maypole the Friday before its closure, had booked the club to host her son's christening reception on August 18. She has now been left with less than a month to find a new venue.

The mother-of-three said: "I booked the reception in March before my son was even born as I wanted to be organised. The staff contacted me immediately to arrange repayment of my deposit but I have 100 people coming and no idea where to go.

"We only joined the Maypole recently so didn't get much of a chance to enjoy it but were looking forward to utilising a family friendly place that was local to us."

The Star understands that the facilities will be demolished to make way for a new road linking the B1184 to the Newhall development in a bid to improve the area's transport links ahead of the impending development of the town's Enterprise Zone.

Ms Palmer, who lives less than 300 yards from the venue said the prospect of a new road also concerned her.

"The original plans showed to us when we bought our house in January showed the road much further away - we were also told that it would be at least 200m from our house.

"If this is now incorrect and the road will cross the Maypole site the high levels of pollution will directly affect my young family. We have just completed a full refurbishment on our property and would struggle to afford to move as well as cope with that logistically."

"It has been dealt with terribly - with unnecessary upset of the staff, members, and neighbourhood. No-one has contacted us to let us know any work is beginning or when this will occur," she added. "We feel very unsupported as newcomers to Harlow and have no idea where to start in obtaining more information or challenging anything that has changed from the original plans that negatively affects us."

Harlow Town Football Club have been inundated with calls since the Maypole's closure with birthdays, christenings, and wedding events looking to find

Police investigate indecent assaults

POLICE are hunting a man who indecently assaulted two young women in Harlow in the space of a few hours.

Both sexual assaults took place on Kiln Lane in the Church Langley area of the town on Monday, July 15.

The first incident happened at 12:30pm when a man ran up behind an 18-year-old woman and touched her breast before running off again.

The second assault happened within metres of the first at 8:30pm. The suspect placed his hands on the breasts of a 23-year-old woman before, again, running off.

Investigating Officer PC Andrew Christian said: "This is a rather bizarre set of assaults and, as it happened on the ring road of Church Langley, we're hoping that passing motorists as well as other passers-by would have seen one or both incidents."

"Furthermore, we're appealing for anyone who believes they know the young man from the description provided, especially with the rather distinctive-coloured clothing."

The assailant is described as white, in his mid-late teens and of slim build. He is approximately 5ft 9ins tall and was wearing an aqua-blue T-shirt, grey jogging bottoms and white trainers on both occasions.

Anyone with information on these sexual assaults is urged to contact investigating officers at Harlow police station on 101.

Police drop probe into woman's death

POLICE have closed their investigation into the death of a Harlow woman after a post-mortem examination ruled out foul play.

The 25-year-old was found dead at a property in Jocelyns at around 1pm on Sunday, July 14.

Police had initially treated the death as suspicious, arresting a 38-year-old Harlow man at the scene.

He was later released on police bail pending the results of a post-mortem examination, which was carried out on Monday morning.

However, the autopsy results ruled out death in suspicious circumstances, and the man was released from his bail by police.

They have since confirmed they will take no further action against him.

A file will now be prepared for the coroner ahead of an inquest to open in due course.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT: Cassandra Lewis and Kevin Whitfield muck in at the community allotment

SHOULD HARLOW COUNCIL ENCOURAGE MORE RESIDENTS TO SET UP THEIR OWN COMMUNITY ALLOTMENTS?

www.harlowstar.co.uk

Allotment sowing the seeds of love

A GREEN-FINGERED mum is hoping to provide free food to hard-up residents after "reclaiming" a neglected patch of public land to set up her own community allotment.

Fed up with walking past mounds of rubbish and dog mess every day, Cassandra Lewis, of Five Acres, took it upon herself to clean up a parcel of land behind garages on her estate - and has now transformed the area into a thriving vegetable patch.

"This bit of land used to be a complete eyesore - there was litter everywhere and it was covered with dog poo," she told the Star.

"I got so sick of seeing it in such a state that I decided to do something about it. I'd read about people setting up community allotments in their neighbourhood so I just thought 'why not give it a go?'"

"A couple of days later, we'd

CHRIS MOSS

chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

planted our first seeds - and it's just snowballed from there."

The allotment now boasts two polytunnels housing everything from runner beans and tomatoes to chillies and melons - and Cassandra has no plans to stop there.

"It was just me and the kids at first, but after word spread about what we were trying to do, more and more people got involved, either by helping us plant or by donating money or seeds," she said.

"One of the nicest things has been the sheer number of people living in my neighbourhood who I've got to know through this."

"I've spoken to more of my neighbours in the past few weeks than I have in all the years I've lived here!"

The group have now set up their own Facebook page encouraging likeminded residents in other parts of the town to join their "food revolution".

"With so many hard-up people out there struggling to pay for their food, this is the perfect way to help the needy while encouraging community cohesion," Cassandra added.

"We're fully aware that we'll eventually need to get an official licence from the council, but hopefully this will be exactly the sort of thing they will want to encourage across the town."

A Harlow Council spokesman told the Star the authority was "keen" to meet with the group.

"The council is keen to find out more about this project and how we might be able to help," he said.

You can find out more about the group by searching for 'Share The Love: A Food Revolution' at www.facebook.com.

Staff and members of Maypole have been treated disgracefully

SIR, I was a member of The Maypole Sports and Social Club and have spent many years socialising with family and made some very good friends.

I have also had two children and although they are still very young I truly believe it has done them the world of good to be social and interact with other children and people.

I am deeply saddened by the closure and feel very angry with how it was dealt with. They were not just staff but friends and to see and hear how they were treated is disgraceful.

I feel as a member we are owed more of an explanation and should have at least been given some notice so we could have organised one last get-together with what we call the Maypole family to celebrate our friendships, thank staff and see our social club out with a bang.

Lois Jackson
via email

Maypole closure is a blow for community cohesion

SIR, Having been born and lived in the town all my life, I have to say how disgusted and angry I am at The Maypole being closed down without a by you leave to anyone who worked there or who had booked weddings, parties etc.

How in this day and age can a sport recreation ground be taken away from all ages of people in this so-called sport commending town?

The simple answer is that it's not who you know but who you pay. That's the only way this land has been allowed to be taken for yet more empty units or houses that will clog up the roads and give us all more problems of parking when we go shopping.

This used to be a social town but its now losing all its places to meet and have any form of community bonding.

Well done to whoever is involved in putting the staff out of work and shafting the sports teams as well as busting up a fine group of club members and friends.

Bill Manzi
via email

Council tax demands hitting the poor and vulnerable

SIR, I am in total agreement with John Wake (Letters, July 11) about Harlow Council hitting the poorest in the community and terrorising us with threats of court action if we do not pay £50 per month council tax.

I know many will say that we should pay the full amount, but as a single man with mental health issues and living on £50 a week, I am forced to go without food to be able to pay.

READER Richard Gerrard, of Ladywell Prospect, Sawbridgeworth, was sitting by the River Stort when he took this photograph of a heron.

"It decided to land on a narrowboat right where I was," he writes. "It looked me straight in the eye as if to tell me this was his territory... and it was!"

If you have a photo taken in Harlow you would like to feature in our Photo of the Week section, email a high resolution copy in JPEG format, along with a description of your photo and details of when and where it was taken, to star@hertsessexnews.co.uk. Include your name and address and insert 'Photo of the Week' in the subject line.

I have worked and paid my way for over 30 years and now I am only getting a pittance of what I have contributed to society.

I do, however, have one question for Harlow's civil servants - if we are all in the hard times together, why do you not pay to park at the Water Gardens car park?

Millions of hard workers across Britain earn a lot less in wages than you get but still have to pay to park when going to work.

Are you really that different or so important that you have a God-given right to avoid paying your way in life? Are you here to serve the public or just yourselves?

I am sure if you paid the daily parking rate it could go towards having the thousands of potholes that plague our town professionally repaired? Just a thought.

PAH stay has changed my mind on the NHS

SIR, Like many I have been a vocal critic of the NHS but a recent experience has forced me to eat my own words and I am delighted to do so.

When all goes to plan, the NHS is brilliant.

I consider I am fortunate at 73 to have a first rate GP at Lister House. Having rung 111 the Paramedic arrived in under 10 minutes and I was taken to PAH where I was seen in less than 15 minutes.

I spent over a week in Kingsmoor ward and, with one exception, the staff were super.

I was told by the surgeon I would have my gall bladder removed in six weeks. Six weeks to the day I reported to the 'same day admission' at 7am, I was on the table by 8.30am and on the ward by 11am.

I stayed in Tye Green ward for the night and was discharged at 10.30am the next day.

Thank you PAH and all those involved with my treatment. You did a great job.

Lock up your chickens - Red Kites are in flight!

SIR, Further to Charlie Powell's letter last week about a Red Kite sighting over Orchard Croft. I can confirm that they are in the area.

I live in Roydon and first saw a pair three years ago and have seen them each year since.

I understand they take a keen interest in the chicken and turkey chicks being reared at a local farm!

Every chance of spotting a Red Kite in Harlow

SIR, With regards to the letter from Charlie Powell about a possible Red Kite sighting, there is every chance he did spot one.

These wonderful birds are becoming more and more common across southern England, with an estimated breeding population of 400-500 birds.

I sighted one myself in April flying over The Jean Mc Alpine Park in Harlow. They were reintroduced into the Chilterns area about 20 years ago and are to be seen all around that area, where they have been reported as swooping down in school playgrounds taking packed lunches!

Currently there are reports of them just over the borders in Hertfordshire regularly being seen.

FEATHERED FRIENDS: Harlow Falconry staff Kyle Rann, Sarah Anthony and Lisa Smith

Come fly with Harlow Falconry at birthday bash

HARLOW Falconry will be celebrating its first birthday with a family fun day at the end of the month.

The free event at Pets' Corner will also be raising money for an alternative education workshop.

Owner Sarah Anthony, pictured above centre, said: "It is going to be a really good one. We will have falconry displays as well as animal petting and we will be doing a 'Hold a Bird of Prey' session, too.

"There will also be cakes, ice cream and a BBQ and we'll be selling our experience vouchers at a discounted price."

The group hope to raise enough cash to set up a programme of workshops for local schoolchildren.

Ms Anthony explained: "What we want to do is build a workshop for alternative education; we want our own unit where we can run regular workshops with schools to learn more about our animals."

One of the main attractions will be the newest additions to the Harlow Falconry: a pair of four-week-old barn owls who are yet to be named.

"We'll be holding a naming competition at our birthday celebrations and I'm sure the pair will be a huge success with visitors!"

Harlow Falconry will be holding their birthday celebrations on Sunday, July 28 from 11am-5pm.

MP demands urgent oil pricing inquiry

HARLOW MP Robert Halfon was joined by MPs, FairFuel UK and the RAC as he presented a 30,000 name petition demanding an urgent inquiry into allegations of oil price fixing.

The petition was handed to the Office of Fair Trading on Monday morning in support of FairFuelUK's high-profile campaign to keep petrol prices down.

Mr Halfon, who helped pressurise the government into cutting fuel duty in 2011, said: "Petrol and diesel prices are causing misery for millions. The Government has frozen fuel duty but the oil companies are ripping us off."

"We need the OFT to take responsibility and have a full enquiry. Unfortunately they still said no after being given the petition and they are ignoring the will of Harlow people and the general public as well as Parliament as a result."

Mr Halfon joined forces with FairFuel UK last year to press the September so that we can bring fuel prices down for motorists in Harlow and across the country."

The petition, which collected over 30,000 signatures in just five days, calls for a "full and transparent" inquiry into the oil pricing process.

FairFuelUK spokesman Quentin Willson added: "Regulators in Europe and America are now actively investigating oil price manipulation, yet the relevant UK bodies, it seems, do nothing."

"EU and US regulators have acted swiftly yet our regulators say everything in the world of oil prices is fine."

"There's too much disquiet and whistle-blower testimony to leave the subject of oil price manipulation alone. Something needs to be done now."

OFT into investigating allegations of oil price manipulation.

He added: "I will continue to push this and I plan to do that more so in Parliament up until its closure for the summer next week and when it reopens in

Man released without charge after gun scare

A NORFOLK man arrested in Harlow on Tuesday on suspicion of possessing a firearm has been released without charge.

The 40-year-old, from Kings Lynn, was arrested on Southern Way after armed police swooped on an address in nearby Rundells following reports a man had been seen brandishing a gun.

They found a woman and child inside but no trace of the man. The force's helicopter was then scrambled to the area to assist in the search operation.

Following his arrest, the man was held in custody at Harlow Police Station while officers searched the house, but he was released later the same day without charge.

Repeat offender hit with Harlow ASBO

A 22-year-old Harlow man has been made the subject of a three year anti-social behaviour order.

Over the past ten years, Manton has committed numerous offences and has been cautioned or convicted of 31 offences, including criminal damage, public order, battery, attempted burglary, possession of drugs and theft.

Within Harlow, he is now banned from using abusive, insulting, threatening or intimidating language or behaviour within the sight or hearing of members of the public.

NOSTALGIA

Mum was first-ever patient at hospital

ALL SMILES: A nurse chats to PAH's first-ever patient, Margaret Simpson, who was transferred to the new hospital from St Margaret's in Epping

The early days of Princess Alexandra Hospital, covered in last week's Nostalgia, sparked lots of memories for our readers who shared their experiences of PAH's beginnings with us.

Reader Sue Rowley's mother was one of the first Ward Hostesses on Harvey Ward, and her aunt followed suit shortly afterwards by taking up the same role on the maternity ward.

Mrs Rowley, who now lives in South Yorkshire, said: "We moved to Harlow in the 60s when I was 11 as my dad was part of the self-build group.

"My mother was a ward hostess on Harvey Ward. It was a general purpose job and she gave patients any help needed."

The retired teacher added: "I

BIANCA CASTRO

bianca.castro@hertsessexnews.co.uk

know she really enjoyed her work. She was at PAH for about ten years and I remember her primrose yellow cotton dress, which was the uniform then."

Christine Reid's mother Margaret Simpson - who is now 91 - has a different connection with the hospital. "My mother was PAH's first-ever patient," Christine said.

"She had been at St Margaret's in Epping and was moved to PAH when it opened. She'd been very ill at Christmas but by the time she moved to Harlow, she was much better.

"She got very sick after an allergic reaction but she was always happy and never concerned about it all. She later worked for PAH as part of the sterilising department."

Linda Baalham (61), a retired qualified nurse, completed her nursing training at the new hospital from 1970-1973. She said: "I was 18 and a half when I started training in September 1970 and applied to PAH. I loved the training very much, it was strict but fair.

"We learned a lot by hands-on working on the wards but the weeks in school were important for the theory.

"I got my first job when I qualified on Nightingale Ward, and after six months I moved to Lister, which was men's surgical at that time.

"I even met my husband at PAH, who was a senior nurse manager!"

Thousands flocked to town's concerts

HARLOW Town Park welcomed more than 5,000 music lovers to Linkfest in the Park earlier this month - a huge crowd that nevertheless would have been dwarfed by the numbers attending open-air concerts in the 70s and 80s.

The picture, left, shows a huge crowd of music-lovers waiting expectantly for glam rockers Kenny on June 7, 1975.

In the 70s Harlow Council began using the town park to hold free music concerts for residents and the shows featured local bands as well as bigger acts throughout the 70's and 80's.

Thin Lizzy, Bastille and Atomic Rooster were just a few of the big names who made an appearance at Harlow Town Park, all with massive crowds in attendance.

Do you remember going to a free concert in the town park during the 70's and 80's? If so, contact Nostalgia at star@hertsessexnews.co.uk.

Harlow paddling pools to open this weekend

SUMMER is here at last - and youngsters will soon be able to cool off in one of the town's five paddling pools when they open this weekend in time for the school holidays.

The pools at Bush Fair, The Norman Booth Centre, Staple Tye, Summers and the Town Park and the splash park at Potter Street open this Saturday (July 20) until Sunday, September 1.

The facilities will be open seven days a week from 10am to 6pm, dependent on weather conditions.

Although the pools will be staffed between these times, all children must be accompanied and supervised by an adult.

Councillor Jean Clark, cabinet member for community & social inclusion, said: "It can be hard to keep children entertained during the long summer holidays and constant trips out can get expensive.

"The pools are free to use and we know they're much loved by local families. Hopefully now the hot weather has joined us the pools will be an ideal way of keeping cool this summer!"

The pools sometimes close temporarily for maintenance, so residents are advised to check the council's website for the latest information at www.harlow.gov.uk/paddling-pools.

'Inspirational' head lands support role

BIANCA CASTRO

bianca.castro@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A HARLOW headteacher has been selected for a top role providing support to underperforming schools. Burnt Mill Academy head Helena Mills is one of 96 principals from across the UK to be appointed a National Leader of Education in the latest recruitment round.

Ms Mills will now be invited to the National College for Teaching and Leadership's learning and conference centre in Nottingham to learn more about her role in driving school improvement.

Ms Mills said: "I know that working as an NLE can help make a real difference to the life chances of many young people. I am looking forward to working alongside new colleagues and building partnerships that can transform opportunities for children and teenagers, whatever their background."

There are now over 800 NLEs across the UK and it is estimated there will be around 1,000 people in the role by 2015.

Charlie Taylor, Chief Executive of the National College for Teaching and Leadership, said: "It's great that heads like Helena are willing to look beyond their own school gates to help more pupils achieve. Their efforts will be at the heart of a self-improving, school-led education system."

"School-to-school support is having a growing impact and the results speak for themselves with benefits for both the schools being supported and those providing the support."

COMMUNITYNEWS

Charity banks large deposit of food

GENEROUS Tesco shoppers donated almost 2.5 tons of food to Harlow Foodbank during a two-day collection extravaganza.

Stores in Church Langley and Edinbrough Way held a 'Big Food' collection where customers and staff donated any food they could spare to the charity.

The supermarkets have partnered up with the foodbank and host collection days a few times a year.

The Church Langley store managed to collect 984kg of food while the Edinbrough Way store collected more than 1,500kg.

Diane Harper, community champion at the Church Langley store, said: "We have partnered with Harlow Foodbank and this will be an on-going partnership for, hopefully, many years."

"The collection went really well - we collected almost a ton of food which was all donated by our customers so it was really good."

"We also topped up that donation by another 30 per cent and now have a permanent dump bin where anyone can donate food."

She added: "I'm really pleased and I think our customers are very happy to see us supporting the foodbank."

Grateful dad holds a golf day to raise money for hospital

BIANCA CASTRO

bianca.castro@hertsexsexnews.co.uk

A DEDICATED fundraiser's latest charity event has bought him only £1,000 away from his target for the year as his mission continues to thank the hospital that saved his son's life.

Sam Snelling (30), of Victoria Gate, started raising money for Princess Alexandra Hospital's neo-natal unit after staff saved his son's life when the youngster ingested meconium - faecal matter in the amniotic fluid - during his birth, causing his lungs to collapse and kidneys to fail.

After spending six days in the neo-natal unit, Ralph made a full recovery and is now a healthy two-year-old.

Sam's Mission, as the father-of-one has dubbed his fundraising quest, has already raised over £6,000 - meaning he is now just £1,000 away from his 2013 target.

His latest event, a charity golf day, has helped raise £600 towards his grand total. Sam said: "It was a really good day and not something I have ever done before."

"The golf day was held at the Manor of Groves Golf and Country Club and we had about 21 golfers on the day which was great, not only for the fundraising but because I got a chance to tell them about the neo-natal unit and the fantastic work they do.

"I have been fundraising for a while and am conscious about asking the same people for their help which is why this was so great. Everyone had a good time while helping out a worthwhile cause - a win-win situation."

Sam has several other events organised for 2013, including a guest curry night at the end of August, two half-marathons in September and October and a quiz night in November.

"I am passionate about this and want to show PAH how grateful I am for everything."

"I'm humbled by all the support I've had and I'm really grateful. It's snowballed from a thank you to this massive fundraising mission."

To donate to Sam's Mission visit www.justgiving.com/Sam-Snelling.

Marathon cycle for clinical trials

CYCLING enthusiasts are being urged to support breast cancer trials at PAH and St Margaret's Hospital by signing up for a London to Brighton bike ride.

The research unit wants cyclists to join the 54-mile ride which takes place on Sunday, September 8.

"We have some spaces left and would love to hear from you," said Ashraf Patel, associate specialist in breast surgery at PAH. "All you need is a £35 deposit to secure your place and sponsorship or a suggested donation of at least £100."

To book your place on the charity ride, call the clinical trials office on (01279) 827857.

Sight loss service comes to Harlow

A PIONEERING mobile sight loss information service will be making its way to Harlow thanks to Support 4 Sight.

Staff on the unit will also be on hand to offer advice and support.

Rachel Gibson from Action for Blind People's Sight Loss Information Service said:

"Everybody is welcome and visitors can try out a wide range of daily living aids or the latest computer and magnification technology."

Members left in the cold as Maypole shuts

another venue at short notice.

HTFC's vice president Steve Ray said: "We do not want to take advantage of an incredibly sad situation like the Maypole's closure and are trying our best to accommodate people but we have been inundated with calls."

Harlow MP Robert Halfon, who last week raised the issue in Parliament - chaired a meeting between Maypole members and staff, leaseholders Pearson and Synthomer and the site's landlords Newhall Projects last Friday afternoon.

Staff and members were given an opportunity to speak of their frustrations in regards to the club's closure as well as their concern for the future.

When the land was first bought, Newhall Projects entered an agreement with Harlow Council that they must provide alternative facilities, of equal or better quality, once the original club was closed.

But when the Star approached Newhall Projects for the second time in as many weeks in a bid to clarify the firm's plans, the company again failed to respond by the time the paper went to press yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon.

All aboard for charity's upgraded activity centre

A CHARITY has unveiled its overhauled outdoor activity centre after welcoming Essex County Council chairman Kay Twitchen for a tour of its updated facilities.

Feildes Fund Charity's activity centre, located on an island between the rivers Lee and Stort near Roydon, is part of an ongoing programme to develop and improve the site to make it more welcoming and accessible for visitors.

Funding for the latest phase - which is now complete - has cost £44,755 and came from several sources including the National Lottery Awards4All, the Co-op Community Fund, and The Veolia Environmental Trust.

The centre, which has been supported by several organisations and groups, provides leisure activities for able-bodied, disabled and disadvantaged people and users can take part in angling, gardening and boating among other activities.

Cllr Twitchen said: "This is a perfect example of many different organisations working together to support an extremely worthwhile project and it is great to see the whole scheme completed.

"It will provide a valuable facility for the people of Harlow and the wider area, and the County Council is glad to have had an opportunity to contribute."

Contractors and volunteers from local housing association B3Living have already cleared the site, erected new safety fencing and laid disabled-access decking-pathways incorporating raised plant-bed areas throughout the centre, while a previously installed dock is set to have a new roof fitted.

New ducting and pipework has also been installed ready for further work planned for the site, which will include the installation of signage, audio loops, and a level-access sensory-garden with a rainwater harvesting and watering system.

Sun, sea and shopping for £1k winners

A FAMILY-of-five have been the latest to scoop top prize in the Harvey Centre's Win £1k competition - and are putting their luck down to their youngest daughter's kiss!

Louise and Dave Wicks, of Ram Gorse, Harlow, have won £1,000 worth of vouchers from their choice of the mall's shops, and are planning to use their prize to pay for a family break in Cornwall.

Mrs Wicks said: "Our six-year-old kissed the paper before we entered it and we like to think she gave us that little bit of extra luck to win!"

"The last time we ever won anything like this was ten years ago, so it's lovely."

The family have chosen vouchers from Thomas Cook, Primark and Superdrug to help fund their family break to the coast. Mr Wicks added: "We're planning to go away to Cornwall for a short holiday so this win is more or less paying for all of that for us."

New directors for ambulance trust

THE under-fire East of England Ambulance Service NHS Trust has appointed two interim non-executive directors following the resignation of key board members.

As the Star reported last month, all five serving non-executive directors quit in the wake of stinging criticism of the service to patients in Essex and Herts.

The mass exodus followed a heated debate in the House of Commons when MPs from across the region - including Harlow's Robert Halfon, who branded board members "donkeys" - demanded immediate changes at the top.

And this week the NHS Trust Development Authority (NHS TDA) confirmed it had taken the first steps towards rebuilding the EEA board by appointing Sheila Childerhouse and Frances Pennell-Buck as interim non-executive directors.

Dr Geoff Harris, interim chair

chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

of the trust said: "I am delighted that we have been able to appoint two hugely experienced and successful non-executive directors."

"The skills and experience both Sheila and Frances bring will

Ms Pennell-Buck, meanwhile, has 30 years' experience of commercial, business development and change management in both public and private sectors.

She has also held a number of non-executive roles within the NHS, and recently served as chair of NHS Outer North East London.

Both recruits will be working closely with Dr Harris and chief executive Andrew Morgan, together with the executive team, to ensure delivery of the Trust's 'turnaround plan' and response to the independent governance review.

Ms Childerhouse and Ms Pennell-Buck have been appointed for up to six months and are each entitled to £6,157 per annum.

Vacancies for the three remaining non-executive director roles are being advertised on the NHS TDA website at www.ntda.nhs.uk.

help continue to drive the service forward as we maintain a relentless focus on improving services to patients."

Ms Childerhouse has significant experience within the public, health and voluntary sectors, having served for various local and regional health bodies since 1984 in non-executive and chair roles.

CCTV image released following handbag theft

POLICE are looking to trace a man captured on CCTV in connection with the theft of a woman's designer handbag.

The bag, which was left unattended, was stolen at 2.20pm on Tuesday, July 2 from McDonalds in Broad Walk.

The Louis Vuitton

handbag, worth £400, was stolen as well as a purse containing a small amount of cash, gift vouchers, bank cards and keys.

Anyone who is able to identify the man, who was wearing a blue jumper, should contact Pc Donna Money on 101 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Thieves steal fishing gear worth thousands

POLICE are appealing for information after burglars made off with thousands of pounds' worth of fishing equipment following a break-in in Harlow.

A window to the property in Rundells was smashed at around 2am on Tuesday, July 9 and fishing equipment including rods and reels worth a four-figure sum was stolen.

Neighbours reported hearing a van driving off at speed along Commons Road near the time of the incident, and investigating officers believe the vehicle may be connected to the house raid.

Anyone who witnessed the break-in or has any information relating to the theft is asked to contact Ds Mick Orr at Harlow CID on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Comic sculpture is no laughing matter

A BUNGLING artist made a papier-mache sculpture using comics he found dumped in a skip - only to later discover they were rare editions worth £20,000!

Yorkshire-based sculptor Andrew Vickers used the discarded comic books to create a life-sized sculpture which he entitled 'Paperboy'.

But after the piece went on display at a gallery in Sheffield it was spotted by comic book expert Steve Eyre.

He realised the pasted sections were from classic Marvel Comics books - including an ultra-rare 1963 first edition of The Avengers worth around £10,000!

Although Mr Vickers now hopes to sell his sculpture to a comic book fan, it is unlikely he will make anywhere near as much money as the original comics would have fetched.

But the artist hasn't lost any sleep over his gaffe, saying: "You've got to laugh because there is nothing I can do about it now - there's no point in crying over spilt milk!"

Enjoy the sun - but make sure your home is secure

The summer is finally here with a bang weather-wise. Whilst it's great to have the hot sun overhead, the heat provides opportunities for thieves. It's tempting to leave a window at home open if just popping out, or to leave the car window open when visiting friends or shopping, but it only takes a few seconds for someone to steal your property. Your phone, bag, laptop or even your sunglasses are all tempting to thieves. Lock up properly whenever you can.

There has been a slight rise in house burglaries in the past few weeks which perhaps echoes what I have already written. However, our Response and CID colleagues have worked hard in capturing three local burglars in the past week and work on this investigation is ongoing.

Another recent crime trend was a spate of indecent exposures committed in the town by a male on a moped. I have personally been working on these cases and have arrested a youth from Harlow. This investigation is also ongoing.

If you are the parent of a teenager, please be aware that there has been a rise in young people trying to get into pubs and clubs in the Town Centre using an older friend's/relative's ID - such as a driving licence. This is technically an offence - it's a fraud. More importantly your teenager could be putting themselves at risk, so please check where they are and who they are with.

Occasionally we meet people who make us feel truly humble. Two of my Police

CRIME WATCH

By Sergeant Rob Cox
Harlow Neighbourhood Policing Team

Community Support Officers, Louise Webb and Lee Phillips, had the opportunity to cycle alongside a group of children from the Harlow Fields School during their 'Wheels About Town' event last week. Harlow Fields School helps youngsters with severe learning and physical disability and two of the teachers went along for the 8-mile ride, too. The youngsters were a joy to be with and had a great time during the day. However, it has to be said that the teachers could do with some more practice on the cycles and were totally put in the shade by the children, who despite the heat had no trouble at all with the physical challenge!

The mobile police office will be out and about over the next few weeks around the shopping 'hatches' - it's a chance not just to meet and speak to your Neighbourhood Policing

Team and officers from the Council Community Safety Team, but also to get expert cycle coding or crime prevention advice. The office will be at Manor Hatch on Tuesday 23rd July from 12 noon; at Mill Hatch on Tuesday 30th July from 12 noon and at Pollards Hatch on Tuesday 6th August, again from 12 noon.

We often get calls about on-going parking issues. Most parking offences have been de-criminalised, meaning the police don't deal with them. If you have a parking issue it is best to contact the county's parking partnership, who despite their name deal with the whole of Essex. Their details are: North Essex Parking Partnership, P.O. Box 5575, Colchester Town Hall, CO1 9LT. E-mail: parking@colchester.gov.uk. Phone number 01206 507275.

New technologies are catching up with even 'old ones' like me! I am one of a number of the Neighbourhood Policing Team who now have an Essex Police account on Twitter, so please 'follow' us for information and news. Find us at: @InspGregWood; @SgtRob Cox; @PcsoMaynard; @PcsoLeePhillips; @PcsoKaren Rogers; @PcsoChipchase. Don't forget that there is also a lot of information on the Essex Police website: www.essexpolice.uk.

Finally a reminder about the Harlow 5 Aid Event on Sunday, July 28 at Harlow Town Football Club. As well as the celebrity football match, there are events and activities throughout the day raising money for well-deserving local charities. It should be a great day out for all the family. Tickets are available from Passmores Academy and Harlow Town FC at just £2.50 each.

Suzy Stride: Investment is key to tackling youth unemployment

A THIRD of unemployed young people feel they have 'no chance' of ever getting a job according to a recent survey by The University and College Union - a figure Labour parliamentary hopeful Suzy Stride has described as 'heartbreaking'.

The survey, which was carried out by ComRes and commissioned as part of the union's Knowledge Economy campaign, questioned over 1,000 unemployed 16 to 24-year-olds who are not in education, employment or training.

More than 88 per cent of those questioned wanted to work or study and just over two-thirds believed they could contribute a lot to society - if they got the right support.

Ms Stride, pictured below, said: "I feel incredibly passionate about youth aspiration. Essentially we need to be investing far more in NEET programmes, we need the right policies on the economy so that there are jobs for young people."

In the East of England there are an estimated 88,000 young people without work, training or in education.

Ms Stride, who recently met with youngsters living at Occasio House to discuss unemployment, said: "Every young person I met wanted to work."

"They need to get skills but they cannot get jobs to get the skills - it's a vicious circle."

"Labour's jobs guarantee will get young people into work. It worked in the past and would work again. It's a wise investment: it gets young people into work, makes them independent and uses their skills to help the economy grow."

She added: "We need to invest in Apprenticeships for 19-year-olds plus, not just 16-18-year-olds. We need to recognize that apprenticeships are fantastic but they are not a job, and we need growth in the economy to ensure that at the end of an apprenticeship there are jobs for young people."

"There needs to be far more investment in training programs that lead to work and we need to have the right training in place, partly shaped by employers so young people are properly prepared for work."

Train operator boosts upgrades

TRAIN operator Greater Anglia is playing a vital role in helping achieve some of the targets of the East Anglian Rail Prospectus to help make the case for regional rail investment in East Anglia.

The EARP was launched a year ago and Greater Anglia have helped to coordinate and draft the prospectus. The company have spent the past year working with regional stakeholders to secure some of the upgrades targeted for the period up to 2019 - with successes already including print-at-home tickets and improved punctuality.

Work is also underway to look at rolling stock upgrades, more frequent services and earlier and later trains to Stansted Airport.

Managing Director for Greater Anglia Ruud Haket said: "Greater Anglia remains passionate about playing its part in delivering major upgrades to train services in East Anglia in both the short and long term to meet customers and the region's aspirations."

Young Concern Trust celebrates 25th birthday

A HARLOW charity which provides advice and support for children and young people celebrated its 25th anniversary with a Summer Garden Party in Little Hallingbury.

The charity - which opened its doors in 1988 - invited supporters, service users and local councillors to join the birthday celebrations at Gaston House.

Harlow councillor Jon Clempner (Labour) said: "YCT does invaluable work supporting young people in and around Harlow, and Sunday was a fantastic combination of a relaxed afternoon in beautiful grounds, and raising money for a wonderful cause."

"It was particularly pleasing to see so many Harlow councillors of all political persuasions supporting such a great cause."

Director Robert Locke said: "It was a fantastic afternoon. We have been holding a range of events during the year to mark our 25 years in Harlow and it was amazing to bring people together to celebrate on such a fantastic day and in such a beautiful setting."

"YCT works extremely hard delivering emotional and mental health support to hundreds of children and young people every year and it was great to see so many people celebrating our work."

Carjacking accused is cleared of charges

ONE of two men accused of robbing a woman of a mobile phone in a carjacking in Harlow has been cleared of all charges at Chelmsford Crown Court.

Jamie Hunt (20), formerly of the Oasis Hotel, Hart Road, Harlow, was discharged on Thursday (July 11) after no evidence was offered against him.

However, co-accused Craig Lynn (25) - who has admitted to the robbery - was remanded in custody to be sentenced at a later date pending the preparation of pre-sentence reports.

COURT REPORTER

star@hertssexnews.co.uk

In addition, Lynn - formerly of the Oasis Hotel - was formally cleared along with Hunt and another man - Terry Fryatt (25), of High Street, Stanstead Abbots - on a separate charge of burglary relating to the theft of a laptop from a room at the Oasis Hotel on April 6.

Charges were brought in both matters following the carjacking incident in Priory Avenue on April 7 when a woman driver was dragged from her car by a gang of men.

The victim told police her mobile phone was stolen before her vehicle was driven off.

But Prosecutor Richard Stevens told the judge there was insufficient evidence to proceed against Hunt on the robbery charge.

He also offered no evidence against the accused on the burglary charge, leading Judge David Turner to formally record not guilty verdicts for all three men.

Superfast broadband to be rolled out across Essex

ESSEX County Council's cabinet is poised to press ahead with the next stage of its Superfast Broadband project.

The decision was taken by members at a meeting on Tuesday, and means the authority will soon be in a position to announce a preferred bidder and sign a contract for delivery.

The council has been in the tender process since May 2013 and waiting for a response from suppliers by this Friday (July 19). The green light from the cabinet means that work can now begin as soon as the contract has been signed.

Essex County Council deputy leader Kevin Bentley said, "I am pleased that we are now one step closer to bringing superfast broadband to parts of the county that currently do not get this service."

"When the partner is announced, I will ensure that we work closely with them and share all the information we have gathered through the Make the Connection survey."

Essex cocaine gang jailed following bust

FOUR members of an organised crime gang in Essex were jailed for a total of 47 years after police made the largest ever cocaine seizure in the county.

Officers from the Kent and Essex Serious Crime Directorate (SCD) investigated the activities of the south Essex-based crooks between June and October last year and subsequently seized 25kg (55lb) of cocaine worth £2m and more than £375,000 cash.

The drugs were to be distributed across

Essex, Kent and Merseyside, hidden in commercial vehicles.

At Chelmsford Crown Court last Thursday, ringleader Luke Shubert (31) of Glenwood, Bowers Gifford, near Basildon, was sentenced to 15 years in prison.

Toby Jones (29) of Brook End, Epping, and Richard Gamon, (30), of Link Road, Canvey, were jailed for 11 years while Michael Enever (44), of Brook Parade, Chigwell, was handed a 10-year term.

BADGE OF HONOUR: Cub scout Heath Squire with Cub leader Lex Ellington and Scout leader Nick Jones

Clean sweep for super-scout Heath

A CUB Scout from Sawbridgeworth has run out of space on his uniform after completing all 46 of the movement's badges.

Ten-year-old Heath Squire has kept his mum busy sewing the patches onto his Cub jumper after he was inspired to achieve all 33 activity badges, six staged activity badges and seven challenge awards after reading a newspaper article about a fellow Cub who had achieved the feat.

Heath, who worked on many of his badges at home as well as part of group events offered as part of the Cub programme, was supported along the way by his Cub leader Lex Ellington, who helped him complete the challenge by ensuring the missing sections were worked in to the activities offered to the eight- to 10-year-olds who

star@hertsexsexnews.co.uk

attend the Cheyenne Cubs pack.

The Mandville Primary pupil has been working on attaining all 40 badges since he joined the Cubs aged eight. The first badge he completed was 'Navigator' and the most recent was 'Athletics Plus', which he gained despite having a broken thumb!

The six staged badges cover subjects including music, IT, first aid, swimming and hiking.

Heath was awarded the Chief Scout Silver Award, the highest award available in the Cub Scout section, for completing the seven challenge awards, which cover creative, community, fitness, global, outdoor and promise.

Heath's mum Gilly said: "The reason Heath has been able to pass so many badges is because of the wonderful varied programme that Lex runs. He is an inspirational leader who the Cubs look up to and respect, a total credit to the Scouting Association. Heath has said when he grows up he wants to be a Scout leader just like Lex."

Nick Jones, leader of the 1st Sawbridgeworth Scouts troop, said: "Lex arranges and delivers a diverse programme throughout the year, from pond dipping to pantomimes, craft to conservation, with camps and adventures thrown in for good measure to ensure that the young people get the best experience possible from Scouting."

"Well done Lex for going the extra mile and well done Heath on your hard work and amazing achievement."

Ambulance service rolls out new response cars

THE first of the brand new 999 vehicles announced by the East of England Ambulance Trust (EEAST) in May this year will roll out across the region from next week.

In all it will be taking delivery of 110 new Skoda Scout response cars from Thursday, July 25. This follows an investment of £14m in new ambulances and £2.3m on the trust's response car fleet.

EEAST plans to introduce 145 new casualty ambulances and 110 rapid response cars between now and the end of June in 2014.

Associate director of operations support Paul Henry said: "We are moving as quickly as possible to ensure these vehicles are on the road in a timely manner.

"Our fleet team are currently completing the procurement process and we anticipate that 50 of the new ambulances will be in service before Christmas and a further 47 coming into service during March 2014. The remaining 48 are expected to come into service between May and June 2014."

The fleet team has also pledged to work closely with frontline staff to review the ambulances' design and specifications to ensure they fully meet patient and staff requirements.

Vaccination warning as measles cases rise

LATEST figures show more cases of measles have been confirmed across Essex.

In the Anglia and Essex zone there were a further six cases on top of 36 from January to April - higher than the total of 37 seen during all of 2012.

Across England as a whole cases declined in May with 188 confirmed cases compared to 299 for April, suggesting that the MMR catch-up programme may be having an impact, but it is too soon to be sure.

Preliminary figures released by Public Health England estimate that around 56,000 previously unvaccinated 10 to 16-year-olds in England have received a first dose of vaccine in the catch-up programme, and around the same number of partially vaccinated children have also received an extra dose of MMR.

PHE estimates that around 120,000 extra 10 to 16-year-olds need to have their first MMR doses to reach 95 per cent uptake of the first dose - these are the 'priority' group who do not have protection against measles, mumps or rubella.

A detailed study of the vaccination programme is expected to be completed in the autumn.

Papa Shango celebrate ten years of lunacy with Square gig

FIRE-EATING, witch-baiting, chainsaw-weilding and burlesque dancing - Papa Shango are back with a bang on Saturday as they celebrate ten years of hard-rocking insanity with a birthday bash at The Square.

The Fourth Avenue venue will be nervously checking their insurance policy as the demented rap-rockers make a bombastic return to their spiritual home.

Led by top-hatted voodoo priest Rob Scatchard, the band - which also boasts former Collapsed Lung guitarist and Square-One partner Steve Harcourt on guitar - never stray far from their bizarre entourage (a gorilla, a skeleton, a dancing banana and a fire-breathing burlesque dominatrix, obviously), so expect the unexpected.

A thrilling and hilarious synthesis of live music and street theatre, Saturday's gig will feature all the band's best-loved tunes, including Hell Witch, Love Sponge and Nothing But The Boots - just make sure you leave the little ones at home!

Secrets and lies in tense kidnap thriller

review

Guilty Secret
Moot House Players
Moot Hall, The Stow

ACTOR/director Dan Powell was keeping a secret of his own on the opening night of this production - playwright Roger Mortimer-Smith was in the audience.

This was only the second amateur performance of the complex and engaging crime thriller and Roger made the journey from south London especially to see it. But Dan kept the news from his fellow cast members.

"To say I was nervous was an understatement," he said. "I didn't dare tell the rest of the cast as they were already suffering from first night nerves!"

Fortunately, the performance went well and Roger stayed behind to chat with us. He was very friendly and encouraging and really liked our production."

So who exactly has something to hide in Guilty Secret? In a tale of kidnap, blackmail, threat, industrial espionage and murder, all four of the characters are not what they first appear to be as the labyrinthine plot takes their stories in varying directions, eventually bringing them to a shocking conclusion.

With the layers and twists of the plot building to its explosive denouement, Dan Powell gave a powerhouse of a performance as George, the bullish "Mr Big" who's all bombast and threats until his plan backfires on him.

His apparently slow-witted accomplice, Lennie, required two distinct and separate parts to his character and teenage newcomer Matt Hunt delivered a skilful portrayal of both - the comically pathetic and dim-criminal sidekick at the beginning of the play and the scheming and manipulative villain who reappears at its conclusion to triumph over both George and Charlotte.

Likewise, Charlotte also presented two faces and the versatile Kerry Rowland invested both with strength and emotion - the desperate and quietly hysterical kidnap victim, followed by the poised and confident trickster.

By contrast, DI Crichton - played with laconic ease by Michael Rees - is an uncomplicated character, a straight-talking copper who wants to get to the truth. But even he is playing a role in the masquerade.

The truth is, everyone has a guilty secret in Guilty Secret.

Bewitching take on a Roald Dahl classic

review

The Witches
Harlow Theatre Company
Victoria Hall Theatre

TO take on a Roald Dahl classic like The Witches is no mean feat - after all, it is almost impossible to emulate something written as if plucked straight from a child's wildest imagination.

But witches' hats off to Harlow Theatre Company for staging an adaptation just as spellbinding as the much-loved story.

Directed by father-daughter team Kyle and Amy Jagers, this was a production packed full of comedy, colour and convincing performances.

Oliver Page played orphan Luke - the unnamed hero of the children's classic - and provided the perfect blend of wide-eyed innocence and stout-hearted resolve to make a believable foil to the dastardly Grand High Witch, played superbly by Alan Grant, and her plot to transform to rid England of children.

The creativity shown in bringing the mice to life on stage was impressive and added another humorous dimension to proceedings, giving the show the playful, surreal edge needed to faithfully recreate the thrills and spills of Roald Dahl's original tale.

But the belly laughs came in the form of a green Molly Jenkins playing the wonderful frog who helps Luke with his masterplan. Relishing the chance to show off a pitch-perfect French accent, she was undoubtedly one of the show's shining highlights.

The whole cast were on top form, especially the band of witches with their high-pitched cackles and hideous masks - wonderful work by make-up artist Fauve Thorpe - which actually elicited a groan of disgust from the audience on first reveal.

The Witches reached and pulled itself over the high bar that would have been set by Dahl lovers, and the cast, lights and special effects worked well together to produce a delightfully devilish show for adults and children alike.

GARDENING & PUZZLES

Glorious gardens

ANYONE enjoying a 'staycation' this summer should make the most of a wealth of gardens open to the public, from National Trust properties to privately-owned country estates, royal parks and RHS treasure troves of colour.

Take a notebook with you to jot down inspiring designs, plant combinations and names of plants you'd like to grow in your own garden. Don't be afraid to ask the expert gardeners on site about hardiness, location preferences and soil requirements of the species in which you are interested.

Many of the public gardens also have guided tours, workshops and special events throughout the summer – check out their websites to find out what's on.

Among the pick of the crop are:

Blickling Hall is one of England's great Jacobean houses, widely believed to be the home to Henry VIII's second wife, Anne Boleyn. The beautiful parkland houses a glorious lake and woodland, offering plenty of picnicking spots. After tucking in, let the kids discover the secret garden, investigate the ancient temple and smell the wonderful citrus trees in the orangery (www.nationaltrust.org.uk/blickling-estate; phone (01263) 738030)

■ Alnwick Gardens, Denwick Lane, Alnwick, Northumberland NE66 1YU

This immense site is perfect for the family. Not only does it house one of the country's largest collections of European plants, laid out in striking geometric beds in its ornamental garden, and the impressive grand cascade, the largest water feature of its kind in the country, it also has plenty to interest younger family members too. There is an amazing treehouse plus a series of water features in the serpent garden – where children may be inadvertently squirted. For others, a visit to the famous poison garden is a must. Monkshood rubs shoulders with hemlock, foxgloves, aquilegia, autumn crocus (colchicum autumnale), laburnum and hellebores. (www.alnwickgarden.com; phone (01665) 511350)

■ Dunham Massey, Altrincham, Cheshire WA14 4SJ

by Hannah Stephenson

Enjoy a satisfying stroll at Dunham Massey's 30-acre estate this summer, one of the great gardens of the North West. Its new rose garden features more than 160 varieties of stunning roses, and kids can search for quiz clues in the garden, spot a deer, clamber and climb on the log pile or help feed the chickens. (www.nationaltrust.org.uk/dunham-massey; 0161 941 1025)

■ Scampston Walled Garden, Malton, North Yorkshire

If you love contemporary design, innovative planting and a mixture of old intermingling with new, don't miss a visit to Scampston Walled Garden in Malton. The four-and-a-half acre 18th century garden, once a neglected kitchen garden occupied by Christmas trees and sheep, has been transformed into nine individual rooms separated by formal beech hedging, each room completely different from the other. Venturing from room to room, you'll find a sea of colour one minute, then the next, you'll find minimal green areas highlighted with topiary or punctuated with swathes of wavy grass. The high point for many visitors is a stunning perennial meadow which becomes a riot of colour in summer with such rich gems as salvia, rudbeckia, phlomis, sedum, knautia and monarda, mixed with flowing ornamental grasses. (www.scampston.co.uk; phone (01944) 759111)

■ RHS Garden Wisley, Woking, Surrey GU23 6QB

The jewel in the crown of RHS gardens, Wisley is worth a trip in the summer just to take in the two spectacular rose gardens. The glasshouse showcases a world class plant collection and has three climatic zones recreating tropical, moist temperate and dry temperate habitats.

WATERED DOWN: Simon Pegg (centre) rounds up the lads (Martin Freeman, Paddy Considine, Nick Frost and Eddie Marsan) for one last pub crawl

To the bitter end: Pegg and Frost go out with a whimper

THE WORLD'S END
certificate 15, 1h 49m

The apocalypse is high in The World's End, the concluding chapter of director Edgar Wright and actor Simon Pegg's so-called Three Flavours Cornetto Trilogy, which began with the hilarious Shaun Of The Dead then stuttered with Hot Fuzz.

Alas, the third outing is a charmless exercise in male bonding spiked with elements of The Stepford Wives as five childhood pals reunite to complete a legendary pub crawl in their sleepy hometown - only to discover the locals have been replaced by robots.

The film's fictional community of Newton Haven boasts the UK's first roundabout, built circa 1909, and Wright and Pegg's haphazard script fittingly goes round in circles as the co-writers attempt in vain to bring their hotch-potch of madcap ideas to satisfying fruition. The tone veers wildly between sci-fi, comedy, action and horror, anchored by an exuberant performance from Pegg as the most instantly unlikeable and irritating anti-hero to swagger out of British cinema in recent memory.

A prologue set in June 1990 sketches the bonds of friendship between five teenagers, who fail to complete a crawl of 12 local pubs, culminating in a final glorious pint at The World's End.

Two decades later, the ringleader of that motley crew, Gary King (Pegg), decides to bring the lads back together to complete the booze-fuelled feat known as The Golden Mile.

With pals Andrew (Nick Frost), Steven (Paddy Considine), Oliver (Martin Freeman) and Peter (Eddie Marsan), who have all grown up, got jobs and settled down, in tow their challenge barely gets underway when Gary unmasks the strangely emotionless residents as robotic doppelgangers and all hell breaks loose.

The World's End is peppered with cameos, none of which produce big laughs or distract from implausibilities in the plot.

Pegg and Frost may have their banter down pat, but the visual gags barely raise a smile and relationships between the characters are thinly sketched.

preview

THE WOLVERINE (2D/3D)
certificate PG-13, 2h 9m

HUGH Jackman makes his long-awaited return to slice and dice the competition as the iconic, adamantium-clawed superhero in big-budget blockbuster The Wolverine next week.

Some time after the events of X-Men: The Last Stand, Logan/Wolverine (Hugh Jackman) is at his lowest point. All the connections that he held dear have been shattered - leaving him vulnerable and aimless.

He's then contacted by a mysterious young woman who brings him to Japan at the behest of a figure from his past.

It's here that Logan faces his greatest challenge yet - a test of his physical and emotional capabilities, during which he must learn to control the rage that drives him.

Based on the hugely popular samurai character arc in the 1982 Marvel comic-book series Wolverine, Logan's journey this time promises to be his most dramatic and spectacular yet.

The exotic background of Japan lends a mystical quality to the rip-roaring comic-book action - as the razor-clawed hero goes head to head with samurai culture in spectacular fashion.

MONSTERS UNIVERSITY (2D/3D) In the colourful and fast-paced prequel to Disney Pixar's Monsters Inc., director Dan Scanlon harks back to Mike Wazowski's (voiced by Billy Crystal) childhood when the six-year-old ignites his desire to become a scarer. Years later, Mike heads off to university to realise his dream, where he befriends shy roommate Randall Boggs aka Randy (Steve Buscemi) and impresses his teachers by regurgitating facts from textbooks. However, classmate Sulley (John Goodman) gets all of the attention and is courted by the Roar Omega Roar fraternity and its dashing president, Johnny Worthington (Nathan Fillion). Eventually, Mike snaps and declares war on Sulley, with the rivals' fates resting on an end-of-term exam which must be passed or Dean Hardscrabble (Helen Mirren) will expel them both from the course.

PACIFIC RIM (2D/3D) Guillermo del Toro's sci-fi action adventure sees giant robots take on gargantuan aliens, known as Kaiju, which have emerged from a temporal rift on the sea floor. Humanity responds by creating the Jaegers - 25-storey tall robots operated by two pilots, whose minds are melded by a neural link known as The Drift. Raleigh Becket (Charlie Hunnam) and older brother Yancy (Diego Klattenhoff) are ace pilots of the American robot Gipsy Danger, but their run of victories comes to a tragic end at the claws of one particularly vicious Kaiju. Five years later, Stackler Pentecost (Idris Elba), commander of the Pan Pacific Defense Corp, approaches Raleigh to step back inside the Gipsy Danger with a new co-pilot. However, bally protégée Mako Mori (Rinko Kikuchi), who is battling private demons, catches his eye and they forge an intense bond that might swing the balance of power back in favour of mankind.

With their sponsor Arthur Tressler (Michael Caine) and renowned sceptic Thaddeus Bradley (Morgan Freeman) watching in the aisles, Daniel, Henley, Merrit and Jack appear to pull off the impossible feat. But within hours, they are under arrest and facing interrogation by FBI Agent Dylan Rhodes (Mark Ruffalo) and Interpol officer Alma Dray (Melanie Laurent). The cops quickly learn that they underestimate the magicians at their peril.

to guide you through the week ahead

Aries Mar 21-Apr 20 Libra Sept 24-Oct 23

The Full Moon in Aquarius has the potential to usher in a sociable and fun start to the week. While Mars linked with Jupiter, suggests you may feel a surge of energy and confidence encouraging you to aim high. However, you could also find yourself facing obstacles that you hadn't anticipated. Someone may have problems with your agenda - so mind how you go. Call for more...

Taurus Apr 21-May 21 Scorpio Oct 24-Nov 22

A very upbeat aspect suggests that you may have something important to share with a key person. However, there's potential for a showdown, so you might need to approach this with care. You may be best to keep a low profile rather than risk a fall out. On another note, romance and family events may be a pleasant antidote to any difficulties. Call me now for your love scope in full...

Gemini May 22-Jun 21 Sagittarius Nov 23-Dec 21

It may help to sort out any financial matters early on, as ignoring them may not be wise. Reducing money-related stress may help you feel better. Meanwhile, the Aquarian Full Moon may highlight a desire to travel or develop a skill, while Venus's move into Virgo, brings some interesting opportunities for entertaining back within your abode. Call for your financial forecast in full...

Cancer Jun 22-Jul 23 Capricorn Dec 22-Jan 20

It may be hard to ignore an impulse to push for success. As Mars links with Jupiter, your determination and confidence may be dramatically boosted, while victory might appear to be a matter of putting one foot in front of another. However, be prepared for a few obstacles too. Try not to pin all your hopes on an idea that could need more work. Call me now for your in-depth forecast...

Leo Jul 24-Aug 23 Aquarius Jan 21-Feb 19

The Sun, newly in your sign, may give you a much needed energy boost, and a chance to review your progress and get back on track with plans and ideas. Meanwhile, the Full Moon could cause feelings to spill over - especially if they have been held back. And yet if you have something to say, whether positive or otherwise, try to think it through first. Call for more news and advice...

Virgo Aug 24-Sept 23 Pisces Feb 20-Mar 20

You may feel like transforming your image, perhaps by buying some clothes or getting a makeover. However, as Venus challenges Neptune, you might be unsure of exactly what it is that you "do" want to change. Getting feedback from a friend may help, but reflecting on a recent personal epiphany may be even more meaningful. Call now for more news and astral advice...

Five-bedroom family home set in a semi-rural location

coverproperty

Location Carters Green, Matching

Category Grade 11 listed former hall house

Additional Five bedrooms, two bathrooms, three reception rooms, period features

Guide price £795,000

Agent Howick & Brooker Partnership, Gothic House, High Street, Old Harlow. Telephone (01279) 418888

TADGELLS is a Grade II listed, former hall house situated at Carters Green, a little known hamlet within the parish of Matching.

It is in a semi-rural location with outstanding views and yet just three miles from Old Harlow.

Dating back to the 15th century, the property has been enlarged and modified to become a delightful family home. Although developed beautifully, there is still plenty of potential opportunities with a separate bake house/dairy with pyramidal roof.

Delightful period features such as exposed beams and brickwork, wooden flooring and fireplaces all add to the charm of Tadgells and there is plenty of spacious accommodation.

On the ground floor there is a large kitchen/breakfast room, a spacious lounge, separate dining room and a further reception room. Upstairs are five bedrooms and two bathrooms. The grounds extend to almost an acre. They are level and in a country style, running alongside farmland and predominately south-facing. The plot includes part of an ancient moat and there is also part of a timber-framed stable block within the grounds.

Tadgells is within easy reach of good junior and secondary school while junction seven of the M11 is a few miles away and Stansted Airport about a 25-minute cross country drive.

To view this property contact selling agents Howick & Brooker in Old Harlow on (01279) 418888.

Tracey Waples Property Editor

DESPITE all the recent talk of new legislation which may see the end of the long school summer holidays, for the moment at least they are still in place.

Weeks of fun in the sun, lie-ins and no homework stretch ahead.

When a property comes on to the market, the agent will often bring your attention to the fact that it is within a good school's catchment area.

With the numerous good schools we have locally, many families will move home for that very reason. The proximity of a top performing state school can have more of an effect than the size of the garden or number of bedrooms for some buyers.

There are certain locations that are much sought after simply because of their catchment area and there is certainly a premium for a house near a school with a particularly good reputation.

Buying a property in a good catchment area may seem like a good idea as you should be able to achieve a similar premium if you decide to sell... but beware, there are risks involved.

As a school becomes more popular the catchment area can shrink, so although your children may get a place there is no guarantee that your property will still be within the same catchment area in a few years' time.

Despite what some may say about the summer holidays being a quiet time for the housing market, it can be a great opportunity for some serious house hunting. There are some superb properties on the market in our local area. The next few pages are the best place to start your search.

What Do We Have To Do To Sell

In an increasingly competitive market place, we know that as long as your property is priced attractively, it will sell. However, many people spend a fortune on improving their homes expecting at least the cost of the improvements to be returned to them via an increased sale price. This can be a mistake, as 90% of a property's value can usually be attributed to its location and size the two things you can't change!

Our advice on this is to be careful. Certainly, improve your home to make it appeal to prospective buyers, but your primary objective should not necessarily be to add significant value, but to enhance saleability. This means making your property more desirable than the other properties currently on the market at about the same price.

You can make any property desirable simply by quoting a price which makes it look amazingly good value next to the others, which may themselves of course be overpriced. However, without throwing your money into subsidising someone's purchase, there are simple things that can be done to make sure your property looks worth the money.

Much of it relates to lifestyle as much as it does to bricks and mortar. For example, a thorough spring clean complete with the smell of pine bleach in the bathroom suggests you're proud of your home and care for it. Cost? Probably about 20p!

How about a lick of paint on the doors? Stripped floorboards generally look better than worn carpets, and a day's work in the garden pays real dividends. Try new light fittings or re-grouting the bathroom tiles. Also, remove any superfluous items from the garden and inside the property, keeping your storage areas tidy as well.

The key is not to rely on your prospective buyers' intuition! Make it easy for them to imagine how pleasant it would be to live in your property, and you could well prompt an early sale.

Getting the Most out of Your Property Investment

Superficially, lettings could be seen as relatively straightforward, and some firms do indeed regard themselves as a simple broking operation, with tenants being introduced to available properties.

However, if your investment is going to provide you with peace of mind as well as a great return, then you will want to know that the property is being managed by people who really care.

Our response to the ever-growing rentals market has been to take a good look at the opportunity to deliver a service to landlords which not only meets expectations, but goes way beyond. Indeed, many of our clients have commented that they have found our lettings service to be a “breath of fresh air” when compared to their previous experience!

For example, it is critical that all prospective tenants are thoroughly vetted and credit checked in order to ensure that they will not only pay the rent on time, but that they will also look after your property as if it were their own, if not better! Indeed, we are passionate about this issue, and during every tenancy we regularly visit the property personally. This not only means that we can keep an eye on how the tenants are treating it, but also allows us to advise you if any preventative maintenance should be undertaken.

We find this on-going relationship with your tenants is also an excellent way of showing them that you care, resulting in them treating you and your investment with the utmost respect, resulting in an optimum return and a peaceful night’s sleep! After all, that’s what a good letting agent is all about!

So when choosing a letting agent, why not choose the one who regards every property as if they owned it themselves! Why not call us for an initial chat on 01279 444988

USE AN AGENCY YOU KNOW YOU CAN TRUST!!

As you may be aware three local agencies have unfortunately, recently ceased trading.

This has been, in some cases, been very costly for Landlords and Tenants.

These agencies offered unrealistically low fees. This often resulted in them being unable to provide comprehensive, secure, reliable service. Many landlords and tenants have been left distressed and unsatisfied.

We offer:

- Legitimate Deposit protection with all deposit's insured
- All tenancies set up with an up to date legal contract
- Staff that understand strict guide lines and follow them
- Rent paid via Bacs with statements and receipts
- A long standing commitment to lettings in our 20th year
- Members of the Ombudsman
- A business that prides its self on honesty and integrity

We have already begun to help numerous landlords and tenants from these agencies, please call us today for a full explanation of the services we able to provide.

Hot hatch of the day

drive
www.harlowstar.co.uk

Powered by

Final 1000s of cars locally
.co.uk

BY MATT JOY

TRADITIONAL AMG models have been big, brash and brutish in their performance delivery. However, in the case of the A45 AMG model, Mercedes has created a very hot hatch, thanks in the main to the class-busting 360 horsepower produced by its 2.0-litre four-cylinder turbo engine.

In reality it's much more than a just hot hatch on steroids.

As is the case with every AMG car, you buy into the the culture of the hand-built engine plus the numerous bespoke set-up and tuning mods over and above any conventional Sport-badged Mercedes.

And being a thoroughly modern AMG car, the A45 boasts an intelligent all-wheel drive system that directs power to where you need it most.

With all the engine's power comes control. Alongside the car's intelligent all-wheel drive system is a three-stage ESP set-up. Aside from the default 'On' mode, there's a second setting giving the driver some leeway before kicking in, with a third 'Off' mode promoted as a trackday setting.

Rounding off the powertrain tour is a version of Mercedes' existing double clutch gearbox. This seven-speed DSG-style gearbox can be left in auto or switched to a more responsive Sport mode, while chunky paddleshifters behind the steering wheel give the driver complete control in manual mode.

Figure-hugging sports seats greet driver and passenger when you open the door, and from the sports-themed trim in the cabin it's clear that Mercedes isn't shy in promoting the A45's performance potential. Racy red coloured trim and lots of faux carbon fibre are the obvious giveaways.

Still, Mercedes hopes the real thrill will be from driving. The A45's deep exhaust note certainly suggests a good time will be had by all, yet the car is surprisingly civilised if you leave everything in its default setting. For many this will help make it an easy-to-live with all-rounder, which is not something you can say for some of the more extreme, rock-hard riding, traditional hot hatch buzz boxes.

Granted, even in comfort mode you do know the A45 is a bit special. It's also quick and boasts a refreshingly compliant ride in the context of a firmly suspended compact hatch.

That's largely down to the value-added AMG element, which also makes its presence felt through the car's weighty and direct steering. Still, leaving the A45 in its default settings will mean you'll fail to reap the benefit of its GTI-plus price tag.

Switch to the gearbox's Sport mode and gearchanges are noticeably quicker, plus you're accompanied by four-cylinder versions of AMG's trademark barking, backfiring and first for AMG, yet the firm has done a good job of making the A-Class feel special.

Although there's no obvious rear-wheel drive bias at any time, power to the back wheels - up to 50 per cent if needed - comes in smoothly to counter any slippage detected up front. Just don't expect lairy tail-out adventures of the likes associated with a V8-powered E-Class.

The result of this feisty, compact package is a driving experience akin to a GTI on steroids when you're pushing hard, and a brisk drive in a plush A-Class when you're not.

This is performance car motoring in an era of downsizing, although with the A45 it's a size, not a cost, thing. You're still paying German sports saloon money but the wrapper has a more youthful angle - something Mercedes is keen to exploit as it seeks to encourage more people onto the AMG ladder.

While you still have access to a wealth of safety and creature comfort equipment in true Mercedes style, the A45 promises a more accessible and affordable route into AMG ownership. It successfully balances practicality with manic performance, allowing you to choose exactly how much of the latter you wish to experience.

And after your first helping of the car's bellowing exhaust note, you'll definitely be back for more.

DRIVING - IT'S A REAL PAIN IN THE BACK!

According to figures from Backcare, nearly two in three Britons suffer from back pain every year. Now motoring organisation Green Flag is urging all motorists to check their driving positions to avoid causing serious back damage or straining their backs whilst motoring. Green Flag conducted a survey of drivers to find out the most common mistakes made when sitting behind the wheel.

Spokesperson Nigel Charles worth revealed, 'We were alarmed by the results of our survey, because drivers are simply not looking after their backs whilst at the wheel. The problem starts before even setting off, as less than half the motorists questioned (44 %) admitted they never, or very rarely, re-adjust the car seat when getting into the car, even when someone else was driving previously.'

The survey results also revealed that over a third of male drivers prefer to sit with their legs fully extended, which could strain back muscles as they reach for the pedals. In contrast, 32% of women admit sitting much closer to the wheel, which could be equally back for the back; being hunched up will not give enough support. Not only should the distance of the seat from the pedals be taken into consideration, but also the adjustment of the seat back will help drivers to sit more comfortably and prevent damage. Women drivers surveyed were especially at risk; nearly half (47%) admitted that they position the back of the seat straight up, forcing the back to be too upright, which can cause shoulder and neck problems.

To help make driving more comfortable and avoid suffering from unnecessary backache, Green Flag recommends motorists make the following adjustments to their car seats before setting off:

- When sitting in the chair, check that your legs are slightly bent so that your foot can easily press the clutch pedal down without fully moving your lower back or without lifting out of the seat.
- In addition to your legs being comfortable, it is important that your arms are slightly bent whilst holding the wheel, to avoid putting additional pressure on your upper back and shoulders.
- Do not position the back of the chair so that you are sitting upright, but try to sit so that the back of the seat is reclined enough to support the whole length of the spine. The angle between your back and legs should be greater than a right angle.
- Make sure that your knees do not come too far up and that your hands do not touch your legs when moving them around the wheel.
- Check that you can easily reach the gear lever and driving controls without causing any excessive movement to your back. • Position the base of the headrest so that it is level with the base of your head.

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

Based in our Hertford office, not only will the successful candidate be able to work in a beautiful part of the country, just a stone's throw from London, but they will also be joining a young and friendly team of reporters who continuously strive to make the Mercury the best it can be.

Reverse route if approaching from the south.

The Order will come into effect on 26 July 2013 and may continue in force for 6 months, or until the event is completed, whichever is the earlier.

Coleman's mustard with 181 no

Harlow Tn 304-6
Benfleet 254-4

Match drawn
Shepherd Neame Essex League, division three

CHARLIE Coleman was thrilled to set a new record when he struck 181 not out when Harlow Town drew against Benfleet in a high-scoring drawn match.

Nobody could recall such a high score for the first team at the Elizabeth Way club after the 21-year-old struck eight sixes and 17 fours.

After Harlow batted first and slipped to 34-3, Coleman came in at number five.

He helped Harlow score 304-4 and received most support in a partnership of 200 from Shiraz Ali who made 72 before he retired ill.

Coleman said: "I felt so good when I was out there. I was surprised to make this score and privileged to set the club record. It is a massive thing for me."

"I did not give any chances and I hit some big sixes. I had got a fifty the week before but have not been scoring many runs. It is the best innings I have played."

MASTER BLASTER: Charlie Coleman celebrates his top score after hitting the Benfleet bowling to all parts of the ground in his record breaking innings (s)

His skipper Ashley Alderson said: "Charlie's innings was probably the best I have seen. "We know he has the talent to perform like this and we are glad he is starting to show it." He added: "Shiraz was brilliant with the bat as usual."

Benfleet replied with 254-4 with Gavin Blowes (64), David Wright (55) and Gareth Steed (61 not out) playing their main innings.

Alderson added: "Unfortunately Benfleet had no intentions of going for the win and it was hard to take wickets."

Meanwhile, Harlow Town II beat Benfleet II away by seven wickets in division three of the Shepherd Neame 2nd XI League.

Benfleet batted first and were bowled out for 153.

Conor Fussell (3-42), Jack Elston (2-24) and Callum Fitzpatrick (3-10) were the main wicket takers for the visitors.

In reply, Darryl Pettengell made a swift 36 for Town.

Other useful knocks came from Daniel Baldwin (30) Johan Cloete (28 not out) and Wade Norcott (31 not out) as Town won with 18 overs to spare.

Other results: Shepherd Neame Essex League: Harlow Tn III 199 (Kieran Gleeson 52, Nick Teale 48) bt Belhus III 155 (Anthony Heath 4-23) by 44 runs; Harlow Tn IV 200 (Tom Wilcox 65 not out) drew with Belhus IV 193-7.

Wixon departs but Read signing is a coup for Chapman

STRIKER Alex Read turned down two Conference South clubs to complete a switch to Harlow Town.

The signing of the former Brentwood and Aveley forward is a coup for Hawks boss Danny Chapman.

Chapman also swooped for 18-year-old Chinedu McKenzie from relegated Ilford.

He has retained the services of Scott Williams, but Piers Wixon will not remain at the Ryman division one north club next term.

"We can confirm that Piers Wixon won't be re-signing for the Hawks for the forthcoming season," said club secretary Ray Dyer.

"After a recent holiday and talks with various clubs, Wixon has decided to join another Ryman division one north club."

Manager Danny Chapman said of Wixon's decision: "I am sad to see Piers go. He has been a key player over the past couple of seasons, but with the likes of Alex Read and Chinedu McKenzie now on board it will not be as a big a blow as it could have been."

"The club would like to wish Piers all the best for the future and thank him for all his efforts over the time he was at the club."

Midfielder Robbie Martin has joined from Ryman division one north rivals AFC Sudbury.

Chapman managed to see off competition from Conference South clubs for Martin's signature as well.

But it is the signing of Read which could be key. He scored more than 25 league goals in his last two seasons.

At Tilbury in 2011-12 he helped them to the play-offs, and last season with Brentwood Town and Aveley, he ensured the latter reached the play-offs.

The lack of goals was a real problem for Harlow last season.

They actually scored fewer goals than when they finished bottom of the division when Anthony Anstead and Marvin Samuel had separate spells in charge in the 2009-10 season.

Despite playing for a struggling team McKenzie notched six goals in his last nine appearances for Ilford.

Chapman has re-signed goalkeeper Daniel Knowles, experienced defenders Danny Brown, Donny Barnard and Christian Wheeler, plus midfielder Ben Hart, who can also play at right-back.

Street keep up the pressure on Heath

A DISCIPLINED all-round display gave Potter Street a home six-wicket win over Bengoe in division three of the Herts & Essex Cricket League.

Saturday's victory also kept Street third in the table just behind Hatfield Heath.

Bengoe batted first and struggled as Terry Savanhu dismissed openers Dellow (3) and Bateman (2) cheaply.

Bengoe's middle order batsmen of Patel (20) and Walker (31) showed some resistance.

Street captain Abid Khan narrowly missed out on a hat-trick and he claimed 3-22 in his six overs.

Savanhu then claimed two late wickets to finish with 4-41 before Bengoe were bowled out for 159 in 35.5 overs.

In response, Street's opening pair of Jeff Armstrong (25) and Fahad Huda (22) put on 52.

After the fall of the openers, Surath Bastola (53 not out) and hard-hitting Rob Anderson (29) boosted the run rate and placed pressure on Bengoe.

Atul Purohit reached 11 not out and Surath clinched the win in the 33rd over by hitting a six to reach his half century.

Meanwhile, Potter Street II (215) beat Stansted Hall & Elsenham II (97) by 118 runs in division five.

Clarke's pitches fit the bill so perfectly

Wickford .....281-8
Harlow 228-8

Match drawn
Shepherd Neame Essex League division one

IT has been a tough season results wise for Harlow's first team in the league but they can take pride in their groundsman Cliff Clark.

His pitches have been rated second best in the Shepherd Neame Essex League by the umpires.

Clark came second only to Billericay Cricket Club whose pitch is looked after by a professional county groundsman.

Harlow skipper Luke Heskett said: "I congratulate our groundsman Cliff Clark.

"This ranking is testament to the hard work Cliff puts in on the ground and shows him to be a brilliant groundsman."

He added: "We are very lucky to have him."

Meanwhile basement side Harlow were up against it after Heskett lost the toss on a flat pitch at Wickford.

The hosts lost Matthew Nobes for 2.

When Tom Ryder removed ex-Essex player Darren Robinson for 24 and Rizwan Sadiq trapped Tamvir Alam for three, Wickford were 92-3.

TOP PITCH: Action from Harlow Cricket Club whose pitches are rated among the best in the Essex League

However, Harlow could not find a way past opener Dominic Hurst and Liam Rouse.

Rouse made 70 before he was out when the score was 210. However, Hurst went on to make 134 before he was stumped by Tom Ryder who collected a maiden first team five-wicket haul.

He finished with 5-81 with Wickford declaring on 281-8.

Harlow started poorly in reply. Sadiq was lbw for 0 and Nino Calvino (6) was caught superbly in the slips by Hurst.

Rehman Ahmed and Luke Monger put on 66 before the latter went for 38, leaving Harlow on 75-3.

Ahmed and Ahmed Khawaja took it to 138-3 but when Nobes bowled Khawaja for 35 and Chirag Desai took a superb return catch to remove Ahmed for 73, Harlow's hopes of winning disappeared.

Another wicket went but Heskett (37) and Wiltshire (24 not out) batted heroically to seal a draw.

Heskett said: "After we lost the toss this was always going to be difficult and we put up a decent showing."

"We may be bottom but we are only one win away from being outside the relegation zone."

He added: "We hope for a bit more luck when we host league leaders Loughton this Saturday and this will be a tough game."

Naomi's a golden girl

ST MARK'S School student Naomi Harryman scooped two gold medals in the West Essex Schools Championships.

Naomi Harryman (St Mark's) won the 100metres in 12.46 seconds and then triumphed in the long jump (5.40m) in the Under-16 age group.

These were both personal bests (PBs).

Eleanor Moss (Passmores) also gained a PB in the javelin for this age group, throwing 31.50m.

Alicia McARDell (Mark Hall) recorded a comfortable victory in the 1,500m in 5:06, while Lucy Hitch (Mark Hall) won the discus with 21.84s (PB).

In the Year 9 age group there was a commanding win for Rosie Poole (Stewards) in the 1,500m. She clocked 5.11, while Jodi Ratcliff (Mark Hall) recorded 2.23 for the 800m to win easily.

Owen Armstrong (a Year 9 pupil at Burnt Mill) showed maturity to bide his time in the 1,500m before breaking away on the last lap for a win in 4.52 (PB).

In the same age group, G. Banks (St Mark's) scored two excellent wins in the discus (23.20m) and 400m (58.73s).

In the Year 8 age group, Brandon Schibchurn (Mark Hall) won the 100m in 11.95s and the high jump with a leap of 1.50m.

Rebecca Lott (Passmores) won the Year 7 discus with 17.61m.

Claudia Andrews (St Mark's) was victorious in the long jump with 4.12m.

Beth Harryman (St Mark's) triumphed in the high jump with 1.35m, and there was a runaway win in the 800m from Burnt Mill student Kyesha Robinson (2:32.56, PB).

In the Year 7 boys 1,500m, 11-year-old Alfie Poole (Stewards) won in 5:06.9.

Kyesha (11) posted three PBs when competing for Woodford Green with Essex Ladies last Saturday.

She was 2nd in the 150m, just a yard behind Essex County Champion Emily Sharp from Orion.

Her time of 20.19s heads the East of England rankings and she is 20th in the UK for U-13 girls.

Just 20 minutes later Kyesha was in the 800m and nearly caught the winner on the line to record a 2nd PB of 2:32.2.

She was then 3rd in the 75m in 10.75s.

Katie Robinson (12), another Burnt Mill student, was 3rd in the B string 150m in 21.9s, equalling her PB.

Jodi Ratcliff (14) had a comfortable win in the U-15 girls 800m (2:26).

In the U-15 boys B 300m, Mark Hall pupil Brandon Schibchurn was 2nd in a PB of 39.63s, three seconds quicker than his last race over this distance.

In the U-13 girls A 1,200m, Megan Caswell (Burnt Mill) was 5th (4:34).

Athletes claims five first spots in veterans league

FIVE individual first spots were claimed by Harlow AC members in the third round of the Eastern Veterans League at Chelmsford.

Competing in the men's 40 age category, Dave Bauer threw 10.39m in the shot for first spot.

Paul Avontuur threw 8.68m as a guest in this event.

Bauer claimed first position in the hammer (34.86m), while Avontuur threw 19.23m to come first in the men's 35 age category.

Two first spots were won by Dawn Jones (ladies 35 age) in the long jump (4.31m) and in the high jump (1.42m). She also ran the last leg of the 4x100m relay which Chelmsford also won in 61.3 seconds.

The Harlow trio were competing for Chelmsford who finished a close second in the match with 70 points.

The men won their match with a clear 91 points.

Harlow teenagers show Eastern promise

THERE was a smaller than expected squad but heartening displays still came from Harlow Athletic Club members in an Eastern Young Athletes League (EYAL) meeting.

A combination of illness, injury, school exams and Duke of Edinburgh expeditions meant Harlow fielded a depleted squad at Stevenage.

There were only two Harlow competitors for the U-17 girls category but both did well.

Amy Hunt improved upon her 100m and 200m times clocking 13.5s and 28.2s respectively to come fifth twice in A events. Amy was fourth in the B shot (5.88m).

Naomi Harryman picked up PBs (personal bests) for the 80m hurdles and shot put in which she was first and second respectively in A events in 12.1s and 8.65m.

She also celebrated news of her selection for the Essex senior women's team for the long jump by winning the A string event with a leap of 1.50m.

Ral Onyema made his club debut for the U-17 boys. His best performance was in the 1.70m in the A high jump (6th).

Will Marklew, pictured right, won the B high jump (1.65m), before coming second (43.84m) in the A javelin.

Mohamed Tamedou clocked 11.5s to come first in the B 100m.

Meanwhile, Donald Campbell shrugged off the heat to earn a PB 4:49.3 in the 1,500m.

Ashley Rich notched a PB of 8.31m in the triple jump.

Debutant Declan Watson won the U-13 boys B string javelin with a throw of 21.57m, while the A competition was won by club mate

Ed Broad (35.56m) for the third time this season.

In the U-13 boys, Teale Cunningham was third in the 200m A (27.8s).

Teale, who has ambitions to be a multi-event athlete, threw the shot for the first time and was fourth in the A string (6.07m), and was 2nd in the A 75m hurdles (13.8s).

In the U-13 girls, Lauren Barker was 2nd in the A shot put (6.85m).

In the U-15 boys there were debuts for Kieran Miller (B 200m, fifth, 27.7s) and Harry Woodall (A 200m, fourth, 24.7s and B 100m, seventh, 15.2s).

There was a welcome return after a lay-off for Rachel Kyobe in the U-15 girls. She was seventh in A 100m (15.2s), fifth in the A shot (6.59m) and fourth in the discus (15.10m). Club stalwarts Kieran Bull (U-15 boys) and Ellie Williams (U-15 girls) were both close to their best.

Kieran was fifth in the A discus (18.10m) and sixth in the A shot (6.05m).

Ellie came second in the B discus (14.10m). She was also fourth in the A 75m hurdles (13.9s) and fifth in the A javelin (13.61m).

Harlow team manager Steve Lott said: "Despite low track or field positions there were a lot of good performances today; many of our young athletes achieved PBs or got close to them."

High fryers HAC lose out as heat hits play-off bid

HARLOW missed out on reaching the play-off for a second successive promotion as the combination of a depleted team and blistering 33 degrees celsius heat left them back in fourth place in their final meeting of the Southern Men's Athletics League season on Saturday.

In a complete contrast to the last match, Harlow met at Thurrock with a depleted team of nine, having lost several athletes due to injury and illness.

Team manager Catherine Bauer said: "I am very proud of how the team has performed this year. We knew that it would be a struggle having moved up to the first division but the team has put in some sterling performances this year keeping us competitive against larger clubs with a greater depth of membership.

"We would welcome more senior athletes both male and female and also veteran athletes of all ages (over 35+)."

Carl and Glen Paxman stepped in to cover many events left vacant by absent athletes.

Carl competed in 11 events and Glen in 12 including the 100m and 200m.

"Carl and Glen have covered more events in one day than a decathlete covers in two days – an amazing feat especially in the extreme temperature," said Catherine.

Carl sealed first place in the B triple jump with a distance of 11.13metres among his many events. His other results were: 100m (3rd) 12.2s, 200m (5th) 27.2s, 400m (5th) 62.1s, 110m hurdles (4th) 23.6, 400m hurdles (4th) 70.4s, 3,000m steeplechase (4th) 17:19.4, high jump (4th) 1.40m, long jump (2nd) 5.95m.

Dave Bauer had an excellent day achieving season bests in the discus with 39.94m (2nd, A string), hammer 36.36m (3rd A) and shot 10.97m (3rd A).

His discus throw moved him to 4th in the M45 UK rankings from 7th.

His effort in the shot has equalled his veteran club record.

Chris Clark won the B string hammer with a throw of 24.33m and came 5th in the B string discus with 20.65m.

Craig Snook (M40) leapt 2.40m for 2nd in the pole vault and threw the javelin 37.19m for 5th.

Harry Gough (U-20) competed in the A string 400m in 56.5s for 6th place and B string 800m for 2.30.1 (5th).

Liam Mistry was 5th in the A 800m 2:11.5 and 1,500m 4:36.8.

Paul Jeffrey-Read came into the side and ran the A 5,000m in 18:58.5 for 3rd, and was ably backed by Jamie Jephcott in the B string with 19:33.5 (3rd).

Jephcott also ran the A 3,000m steeplechase in 13:26.6 (4th) and B 1,500m (5:23.5, 5th).

In the 4x100m relay Harlow were 5th in 51.0s (Harry Gough, Liam Mistry, Carl Paxman, Glen Paxman). The 4x400m relay saw Harry Gough, Liam Mistry, Carl Paxman and Glen Paxman come 3rd in 4:02.5.

Mission to Moscow

Osagie coach upbeat ahead of World Champs

COACH Craig Winrow is confident his protegee Andrew Osagie can dazzle on his mission to Moscow when he makes his World Athletics Championships debut next month.

There were fears the Harlow Athletic Club 800metres runner might miss out after he pulled out of last weekend's World Trials and British National Championships.

However, the GB selectors have put their faith in Osagie (25) by giving him a wildcard to join up with the 60-strong squad.

Craig Winrow told the Star: "He has had a bit of a turn on his hamstring which is why he could not be at the trials.

"It was nice that they [the selectors] have put their trust in him. We will try and get him fit and raring to go over the next three weeks."

He added: "He has done well in the Diamond League and if he is in as good a shape as he was for the Olympics he has got a good chance."

Osagie pulled out of the national championships, an event he won last year to qualify for the London Olympics, because of a hamstring injury. "Unfortunately not recovered in time to defend my British title this weekend. Truly gutted but good luck to everyone competing at the trials!" tweeted Osagie.

After a tense few days, not knowing whether he would be given a discretionary place at the World Championships, Osagie can now rest easy after making the squad on Tuesday.

Michael Rimmer won the 800m at Birmingham in Osagie's absence. It was his sixth national title, and he was automatically named in the GB team.

However, his winning time of 1:47 was two seconds slower than Osagie's season best.

In the Russian capital next month there will be no World Record Holder David Rudisha. He is out injured, favouring Osagie's chances of winning a medal.

British Athletics

Performance Director Neil Black said: "The team selected for GB & NI are a mix of defending champions, potential medalists, finalists and some really exciting young talents that we see as future medalists."

"Last weekend's Sainsbury's British Championships was a brilliant stage for the world trials, and we saw some world class performances."

"It gave the selectors a real opportunity to see the athletes in championship mode and we were not disappointed."

"A year on from the Games and it is great to look forward to Moscow with the selected team, as we take our first steps in the build up towards Rio 2016 and London 2017."

The World Championships will be held from August 10-19.

Quartet sign up and boss eyes three more

HAVING already wrapped up the signings of four new players, Hawks boss Danny Chapman is refusing to put down his cheque book and hopes to sign three more players.

Midfielder Jordan Fowler (27) is set to return for a second spell at Barrows Farm.

The Harlow Town boss also hopes to bring in a centre-half who has played in the professional game for West Ham and Southend United.

The player, whom Chapman is refusing to name at this stage, has also had spells at Ryman League clubs Brentwood Town and Billericay.

"He has spent the last year at Brentwood. He will make a decision in the next week or so," Chapman said.

"Jordan is someone I have known for years. Technically he is top drawer."

Not content to stop there, the Harlow boss is also targeting a left-back as he aims to build a squad capable of winning promotion from Ryman division one north next season.

He has given a trial to former Potters Bar full-back Lewis Lavers, who was at Watford when he was younger.

"Things are going in the right direction. The club on the whole is buzzing at the moment. It's on a high. Hopefully we can take that into the start of next season," said Chapman.

Harlow fans can get a glimpse of Chapman's new-look side when they visit Sawbridgeworth Town this Saturday.

Chapman has already signed former Brentwood striker Alex Read, AFC Sudbury midfielder Robbie Martin forward Chinedu McKenzie from Ilford, and winger Shane Stamp.

The Hawks boss is positive about the forthcoming campaign, following last season's huge disappointing effort when the club narrowly avoided relegation to the Essex Senior League. "We are looking good. Alex [Read's] movement alone is so good. He's clever, shrewd. He can get 30 goals. That is something we have been lacking for some time. We haven't had a 30 goals a season player since Marc Salmon and Sammy Winston.

"Robbie [Martin] could be that creative midfield player that we need. He can also play on the right wing but the best position for him, in my opinion is in the three in the middle of the park."

Chapman has also been impressed with striker McKenzie.

"It doesn't matter where he is, he seems to know where the goal is. It's another good signing."

"Shane Stamp is a left winger who was at Heybridge Swifts. He has been one of the quickest in the division for some time."

"We will play with a 4-3-3 system when we have the ball and then switch to a 4-5-1. This year we want to attack teams and we want to score goals."

The fixtures were released by the Ryman League yesterday (Wednesday) and Harlow Town were handed a tough start with a trip to Soham Town Rangers on Saturday August 10, followed by home games against newly-promoted Barkingside and Tilbury (see all the fixtures at www.harlowstar.co.uk).

"It would have been nice to have a home game on the new pitch to start the season. Soham will be a tough game. They are a decent side," said Chapman.

"I don't know too much about Barkingside but Tilbury will give anyone a good game."

On Tuesday, Harlow are away to Essex Senior League club Bowers & Pitsea as their pre-season campaign gathers momentum.

Chapman added: "It was hard last season but by bringing in these new players, the club owners have shown their intention. Now the supporters need to get behind the team."

Brown's a pen pal as new boys shine

ALEX Read, Chinedu McKenzie and Robbie Martin made their debuts as the Hawks kick-started their pre-season campaign in Saturday's 3-3 draw at Tooting & Mitcham United.

Read opened the scoring for the Hawks after 23 minutes, but Tooting levelled three minutes later.

Tooting went in front before the break, but young recruit Shane Stamp equalised for the Hawks from a corner.

Stamp was causing Tooting problems down the left wing with his speed and footwork.

The hosts made it 3-2 but 15 minutes from the end, McKenzie was brought down in the penalty box and Danny Brown despatched the spot kick to give the Hawks a deserved draw.
